The cost of this membership is billed annually and will be pro-rated for the first year. Thereafter, dues will be billed in full to the credit card on file in January along with applicable 4% credit card processing fees. Event attendance, training classes and all other MITA services or materials will be billed when provided or ordered to the credit card on file along with applicable processing and/or shipping fees.

*Promotional Incentive - Associate Members who have paid their annual dues in full are eligible for a promotional incentive credit. The credit can be applied to the following: MITA Event Sponsorship, Advertising, and E-Blast credit. This credit is an effort to encourage ALL Associate Members to take advantage of the marketing opportunities being offered by MITA. Associate Member firms are responsible for any remaining balance not covered by the promotional credit. Unused credits will not accumulate.
