The screenshot shows the UHY LLP website's construction industry page. At the top left is the UHY LLP logo with the text "Certified Public Accountants". At the top right are search and menu icons. The main header features a background image of a construction site with rebar and workers. Overlaid on this image is a dark box containing the text "INDUSTRIES CONSTRUCTION" and a sub-headline: "Discover how our decades of residential, industrial, commercial, and heavy highway construction experience can assist your businesses profitability and cash flow." Below this text are two buttons: "CONTACT US" and "FIND A LOCATION". Below the main header is a section titled "CAPABILITIES" with a dropdown menu currently set to "CONSTRUCTION OVERVIEW". The content of the dropdown menu reads: "Our professionals are among the country's top authorities on business issues for the construction industry and we're dedicated to serving you. We understand all the state and local regulations, and the unique business requirements of construction companies like yours. Behind the construction work evident to the public is a world of intricate challenges, issues, and obstacles. We keep on top of evolving industry topics to ensure you stay proactive about issues that could impact your business."
